I, Frank H. Burgess, business manager of The La Crosse Tribune, do solemnly swear that the actual number of copies of the paper named, printed and circulated during the month of June, 1914, was as above stated.Subscribed and sworn to before me this first day of July, 1914.A. E. BLECKMAN, Notary Public.BURNING OF SALEM
NATIONAL CALAMITYThe nation read with sorrow
of the burning of historical Salem, Mass. Homes which have sheltered generation after generation were destroyed. Public buildings, rich in historic value and really a part of the struggle of the United States for liberty and independence, were swiftly away.While the financial loss is great, it is of small importance compared with the historical loss. Money can replace the factories and most of the residences, but never can the homes and buildings of colonial times be restored.STARTING THE PROSPERITY WAVEWhether hard times, throughout the country generally, are an actuality or a state of mind, here's one section that isn't doing any complaining. A Kansas banker writes to an eastern relative this agricultural paragon of joy:"We'll have 3,000,000 bushels of wheat in this county. That means $2,000,000 cash for one crop of wheat, to say nothing of the other crops. As we have only 20,000 people in the county, the $2,000,000 will divide up nicely.The largest wheat crop in the state's previous history was about 34,000,000 bushels, but this year we will beat it by about 50,000,000 bushels."Our alfalfa crop is going two tons to the acre for the first cutting,

our oats sixty bushels to the acre,

and our rye is six feet high.

"We've never had such good crops in the history of the state, and such good prices."Business may be dull in the east, but with Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma they have never had such prosperity."And the fact that the western farmers are so egregiously prosperous is a mighty good omen for increasing prosperity for all the rest of us. Pretty soon those farmers will be buying clothes, automobiles, farm machinery and railroad tickets and the money they distribute around the country will be good red blood flowing through all the arteries of commerce and industry.NO EXCUSE NOW FOR INSANE FOURTHThe small boy is preparing to "celebrate" the Fourth this year, as small boys have done for decades.He stands in front of the store windows and watches the fire works and then goes home and dreams of them.It seems that such a celebration as the small boy contemplates is hardly necessary this year. From 9 o'clock in the morning of the Fourth until 10 at night the entertainment committee has planned a real celebration, something that counts. The small boy will be a great deal better off and will not run the chance of getting hurt, if he leaves fire works alone.La Crosse has an excellent chance to set a record this year. We can get along without those terrible accidents, which rob children of their fingers and eyes, and cause untold pain and suffering to mothers as well. Let's try it this year and see what a real "Sane Fourth" means.A "LAYMAN'S" EDITORIALAll we know about T. S. Canright is that he is a subscriber to the Chicago Record-Herald, and that he is a good judge of statesmen. In a letter to the Record-Herald, which that paper published in a column of "Editorials by the Laity," Mr. Can-right said:Senator La Follette several years ago told of the rottenness of the New Haven railroad. Only recently he called the senate's attention to the pressure being brought to bear on the interstate commerce commission to raise the freight rates. Your Mr. O'Laughlin says the report of the commission will show Senator La Follette was right. He always has been as near right as a human being can be. He is far-sighted, sagacious, painstaking and sound to the core. He has been weighed in the balance and never found wanting.
He is stable as a rock, never waver-ing and can always be trusted to do the right thing. He knows, and has never been obliged to take orders from anyone. He will go down in history as one of the most constructive statesmen.Senator La Follette is the one available man for president in the republican party. His record is clean and he is deserving of all the honor that can be bestowed upon him. He is fearless, capable and honest, and is just the man we need for president.The Record-Herald has our consent to "swipe" this excellent contribution from "Editorials by the Laity" and publish it with the "Editorials by the Editor."

GET PAY; LOSE TIME

MADISON, Wis., July 2.—Because the city of Madison loses about $1,- 000 a year through the loss of time of city employees who drop their work on pay day to go to the bank to cash their checks, Mayor A. H.
Kaysen wants the common council to devise means whereby the superintendents or foremen can pay the men. A resolution to effect this change has been introduced.

SCORE HURT IN CRASH

JACKSON, Mich., July 2.—Collision of two interurban cars on the Detroit United Railway lines near Michigan Center, a few miles east of here, at noon today, brought injury to a score of persons, three of whom are believed to be fatally hurt.It isn't so bad to take things as they come, if you only know what to do with them.Quips and Cranks

The Weather Man

The weather man (I know him well),
Who has charge of the station,
Is quite a decent sort of chap
Outside his occupation.When not concocting devilish schemes
To pester us with weather.
He is a charming man to meet,
Delightful, altogether.He is a man of brilliant wit,
He jokes and makes us smile;
Goes to his office, pulls a plug,
And lets it rain a while.He says to keep the thin ones on,
And then straightway doth go
Unto his shop and turns a switch
And lets a blizzard blow.He is a smiling optimist,
His friends ne'er hear him sob;
But he is sure a pessimist
When he is on his job.Outside his office, he's a prince—
A malcontent, inside.
It seems to be another case
Of Jekyll and of Hyde.

What a Jay

Abner Appleby—Jay Green ain't got no more pride and independence about him than a rabbit.

Ashton Allied—Say he ain't?

Abner Appleby—Nah! Whenever he takes a ride on the cars he never stands up and down the aisles or stands out on the back platform, to show everybody that he knows his rights, but just sits still in his seat like he was in church!—Puck.

Lamp Post Tango

The two men had been observing the antics of a strange man in silence, and finally broke into speech.Crawford—What's the matter with that fellow who is holding on to the lamp post and shuffling his feet?Crawshaw—There was a time when I'd have said he was drunk, but now perhaps he's practicing a new dance.—Judge.

Excuse Sufficient

She—Lizzie's bloke calls 'er 'is peach and the happle of 'is hey.Why can't you call me things like that?He—Yus, that's very well; but 'e's in the vegetable business. Him in the fish trade, remember.—Punch.

Small Showing of Dog

An admiring constituent gave Congressman Legare of South Carolina one of those vest pocket edition lil-lupian Mexican dogs to take home to the children. Legare—pronounced Leg-ree by the way—was leading the dog along by a cotton string when a South Carolina mountaineer stopped him."Are it a reg'lar dog?" the man asked."Yes, it's a Ch— Well, I can't pronounce the name of it," said Legare, "but it's some kind of a Mexican dog."

"Just a pup, I reckon?"

"No, it's full grown."

"Well," opined the mountaineer,
"that is the least dog I ever seen at one time."

The Monkeyless Organ

Edith had been to a concert for the first time. "And what did you think of it?" asked her mother.

"I didn't like the organ very well."

"Why not?"

"Cause there wasn't any monkey with it."—Harpers Magazine.

Can Pour It Down

It was a very youthful class in physiology."Why," asked the teacher, "is it best to eat soup first when one is very hungry?"The pupils started at her blankly.
Then James enlightened them from the depths of his own experience."You can get it down faster," he announced.—Delineator.

The Proof of It

A great deal of what we call pleasure is largely imaginary," said the ready-made philosopher."I suppose so," replied the man who was working on his automobile."Now, wouldn't you like to be able to take a long ride without having to worry about speed limits or spark plugs or tires or anything at all?"

"I should say so!"

"Well, here's a street car ticket."

FUNDS SHOW DECREASE

MADISON, Wis., July 2.—All funds in the state treasury held $4,- 000,854.81 on July 1, compared with $5,305,191.41 on June 1. The balance in the general fund yesterday was $3,167,193.53, as against $4,- 011,843.77 on June 1. The status of the treasury for the close of the fiscal year, June 30, will not be known definitely for several days.

Somewhat Personal Humor

He paused to look in a window, and feeling warm, raised his hat and brushed his head. It was a bald head.The humor of the street urchin cropped out at the act. A bootblack, who stood beside him, touched him on the arm: "Shine, sir?" he asked.

having specks of gray in the iris, as you see red spots in the bloodstone.MOTHER OF

CHAPTER NINETEEN.

The year was almost spent before John Smith was in a mood to start on his voyage up the Chickahominy;
indeed, not until the first of December would he declare himself willing to make the beginning of this enterprise, and then, that the work at James Town might still go forward, he took with him but ten men in the barge, and with these set forth to discover that fantastical passage to the South Sea, the lure of which was ever present in the minds of our gentlemen captains.I had counted on being one of his companions, but by a fortunate mis-chance, as it turned out, I had hurt my right arm, this hurt being in the nature of a sprain which rendered it high useless, so perforce I remained behind, giving place to one better fitted to pull an oar or handle musket and match.I think a matter of some ten days had elapsed when late one afternoon, the cry was raised that the barge had been sighted far up the river by two of our men who were shooting wild fowl by the shore. This took a number of us to the water front anxious for the news at first hand. Straining our eyes, we could discern the barge a mile off; it was being pulled against both wind and tide, and came slowly toward us out of the increasing gloom."Think you, Farraday, they have so soon found the South Sea?" asked Marshall at my side."Heaven send they have!" I made answer; for since I doubted not the western ocean was somewhere there, it would have pleased me well could John Smith have had the honour of its discovery."I'll swear if stout John O' James Town has failed, there be none here likely to succeed!" said Marshall, yet though he would never forego
his sly jest at my friend's expense,
he had a very honest liking for him,
as all true men had.As the barge came nearer I noted that it held not all the company that had set forth in it. Whilst I was straining my eyes to make sure of my count, someone raised a cheer;
but save that the man at the steering oar tossed his hand aloft, this got us no response from the barge, and I noted the slovenly handling of the oars as they entered and left the water. It was the rowing of men worn down by fatigue to the verge of utter exhaustion. Then presently,
I was able to make out that John Smith was missing—and where were Cassen, Emery and Robinson? My heart sank with a foretaste of what was to come.The barge was now close in, and Anthony Gosnold was the first man to step ashore. As he did so, I cried out:

"Where is Captain Smith?"

For answer Gosnold shook his head, but would not trust himself to speak."And where Cassen?" cried another.

"Dead," said Gosnold.

"And Robinson?"

The question leaped from us as we pressed about him."God save us, gentlemen!" cried Master Anthony, with a strange catch in his voice. "Our true and stout comrades were slain by the savages—and it was only by a miracle that any escaped to bear you the tidings!"As men overwhelmed by some great and sudden tragedy we turned back into the fort, walking silently as in a daze.John Smith dead! It was sore to think on, that after all his brave adventures by sea and land, he who had bearded Turk and Spaniard should find his death in far-off Virginia at the hands of savages poorly armed with bows and flint-tipped arrows! I could scarce credit it, but I felt a sudden rage lay hold of me for those unknowing pagans, who had compassed his fall, that they should have slain so true a Christian and so stout a warrior!We repaired to the house we had but recently builded for public use, and which we called our Parliament House, that all might have opportunity to hear Gosnold's relation.On that press of men, for the most part sober and grave of face, as they had good right to be, there fell an instant hush when Master Anthony began to tell briefly of the voyage up the Chickahominy. They had got about seventy miles from its mouth, as they estimated the distance, when it became evident the depth of water would not admit of60th Semi-Annual

NORTH SIDE

SENIOR LEAGUE OPENS TUESDAY

Six Teams Enter for Copeland Park Indoor Baseball Race

Tuesday, July 7, will see the opening of the summer indoor baseball season of the senior league of the north side. Six teams will be in the running this year, headed by the Nelsons, who took the pennant last year in a whirlwind season. Enthusiasm is running high for the sport, and an exceptionally good year is expected.

The schedule for Tuesday is Nelsons vs. Rubber Mills, Larry's Colts vs. Dew Drop Inn Colts, and Naps vs. Billikens.

In the junior league yesterday at Copeland park the Champs downed the Pirates and the Japers triumphed easily over the Tigers, the scores being 13 to 7 and 21 to 3. The scheduled games tomorrow are Japers vs. Pirates, Tigers vs. Champs and Midgets vs. Tigers.

MANY THOUSANDS SEE HOME-MADE PRODUCTS SHOW

shows in detail what is being done by the company.

Lunde & Childs
Lunde & Childs have an interesting display of aluminum ware in the Elite window. The pigs, the rough cast and the finished product are shown.

J. J. Hogan
A display of mustard, olives, canned goods and catsup is shown by J. J. Hogan in Lennon's window.

Martin Brothers
Work clothes of all kinds are displayed by Martin Brothers in the Fashion shop and at Burrows'. Mackinaws, sportswear's jackets, overalls and the like make up their interesting exhibit. A small suit of overalls, "Just Like Dad's," have attracted considerable attention.

Advance Bedding Company
A sleep producing effect is secured by the La Crosse Bedding company in their display, which includes several remarkably soft and inviting looking mattresses.

La Crosse Hat Works
To show how men's hats are made is the object of the display of the La Crosse Hat works. The various and numerous tools used by a hatter in his trade form a part of the exhibit.

La Crosse Pennant Company
Pennants and pillows of various kinds are shown by the La Crosse Pennant company.

E. Hackner
Perhaps the most beautiful exhibit of the year is the one made by E. Hackner, in one of Doerflinger's windows. An altar, to be used in a Catholic church at Kiel, Wis., forms the center of the display. This is a real work of art, hand carved and finished in cream and white enamel. A picture frame, also hand carved, is another beautiful feature of this exhibit. The bishop's chair, which belongs in St. Joseph's cathedral, is richly finished in purple and is a most beautiful piece of furniture.

Interstate Oil Company
Forty different types of lubricant are shown in the display of the Interstate Oil company—a La Crosse corporation. The oils are displayed in glass containers of unique shapes, and at night time they display a variety of colors reflected from a big light bowl in the center of the window.

A. and C. Johnson
The A. and C. Johnson window is devoted to the display of a variety of products put on the market by that firm—the display being featured by a model house, the lower story of which is stained with their Creosote stain, and the second painted with their waterproof concrete paint. In another part of the window are displayed barrels of a sweeping compound manufactured by the firm.

The Shorn Fur Company
The Shorn Fur company's exhibit is particularly pleasing at this time of year. It depicts a winter scene, with beautifully mounted crinoids and other fur bearing animals in lifelike poses.

S. J. de Ranitz
The de Ranitz window is a mass of pennants, every conceivable kind of banner being represented. Attention is attracted to the window by a revolving drum, upon which are exhibited a number of the choicest pennants.

Paul Lutz
Furs of every description, valued at hundreds of dollars, mark the window of the Paul Lutz company as being out of the ordinary. Seal skin, leopard skin and many other scarce and extremely valuable furs are exhibited.

Novelty Felt Shop
The Anderson Novelty Felt shop has a display that features pennants, although there are a variety of other kinds of felt articles displayed. Pennants of unique design are many in the arrangement.

Smith Manufacturing Company
The products of the Smith Manufacturing company are displayed in the windows of the Boyer-Furber company at 511-513 Main street. The Smith people manufacture farm wagons that are noted throughout the northwest and the display is attractive.

Factory in Miniature
A miniature of the Funke Candy factory is displayed in another of the Boyer-Furber windows and is the attractive feature of the exhibition of that candy company. The display is also made unique by the exhibition of vegetables made from candy and other novelties.

Show Toilet Goods
In the window of Mrs. L. B. Soell is shown the complete line of "Mermaid System" toilet goods. In the window of the E. W. Parker jewelry store is shown the line of the Mariello people. Both displays are attractive and hold much of interest to women.

Knitting Works Products
Socks and stockings of every description are displayed by the La Crosse Knitting Works in their show window at the La Crosse Hat Works. This company has been manufacturing the product in La Crosse for many years and their goods are known in many states. Gloves and leather goods products, made by the company, are shown in another window.

Salzer's Seeds Grow
"Salzer's seeds grow" is the sentence that is "growing" in the display of that company in the O. T. Ehrhart Drug company's window. Real grass is shooting up. The display is made attractive by a farm-house and barn set in a mass of foliage giving a farm effect.

Poultry is Shown
A window that is attracting unusual attention and admiration is that of the Sunshine Poultry Farm in the City Grocery store. An artist has transformed the window into a poultry farm scene. Live hens are picking for food and eggs in quantities to knock the top off the high cost of living are exhibited.

Wisconsin Fur Company
An exhibit of great value is that of the Wisconsin Fur company, in the window of Hoeschler Bros' drug

CURLEW LAID UP FOR HULL REPAIRS

The government boat, Curlew of the federal fisheries department, left this morning for Wabasha, Minn., for extensive repairs. Several planks on the bottom of the vessel have weakened, letting water into the hold. The boat at Wabasha will be placed on the ways in the boat yard there. It is thought that at least two weeks will be consumed in the repairs.

Men want but little here below, but women are always looking for basement bargains.

store, Fifth and Main streets. Real seal, Japanese squirrel, mink and other valuable skins are shown, together with the most fashionable models in fur coats.

Show Heating System.
The heating system that has advertised the name of La Crosse—the Trane—is shown in another of the Hoeschler windows. This is a system invented by James A. Trane of this city and has proved successful.

Electric Display.
The Benton Electric company, in a window at the American Express company, display some of the most modern electrical inventions. The exhibit includes practically everything known to the electrical world.

Engine Features Exhibit.
A 20 H. P. engine, either steam or air, the latest invention of the Bumps Paper Fastener company, is exhibited in the George B. Rose jewelry company's window. Other articles made by this growing concern are on display, including the famous Bumps Paper Fastener.

Dengler's Cigars Shown.
The products of the John Dengler Cigar company are also displayed. The exhibit in the Royal Blue Shoe store window shows the exceptionally high grade of tobacco from which the Winnesheik and other Dengler brands are made.

Patented Anchors.
The newly patented thrust and twist anchors, made by the Gund company, are shown at the Grand Union Tea company. These anchors are for use in bracing telephone poles, fence poles or anything where strength is needed. The smallest has a holding power of 2,000 pounds.

Colby's Goods Shown.
A. C. Colby's electrical goods display in Hoesley's cigar store is interesting to the housewife, many labor saving electrical devices being exhibited.

Pacific Electric Company.
The Pacific Electric company has devoted their window display to exploitation of the Badger portable reading lamp, a patented invention that, to judge from the big poster displaying dealers' names, is handled by retailers in every portion of the United States.

Herken Trunk Company.
Trunks of every variety, with the attention particularly directed to a compact and convenient wardrobe case, feature the Herken Trunk company exhibit. The uses of the wardrobe trunk are illustrated by practical demonstration with a number of garments.

Sta-Rite Engine Company.
The Sta-Rite Engine company has two of its best models on exhibition in the window of the La Crosse Gas and Electric company. In the adjoining windows is an object lesson—a dusty, ash-strewn kitchen coal range, and a neat, shining gas range—a range with a "college education," the accompanying card styles it.

The Onalaska Pickle Company
An appetizing window, with a large variety of good things is that of the Onalaska Pickle and Canning company. Every type of eatable put out under the Opacco brand is represented, in all manner of glass and tin containers.

Sisson-Seielstad-Hougen Company.
A broad belt of coffee beans, containing several bushels of the berries between rows of food packages, is the predominant feature of the Sisson-Seielstad-Hougen company. The window is filled with canned and glass-packaged goods as well, illustrating the complete line of the house.

Wingold Flour.
The central window of the Gantert furniture store is devoted to an attractive display of Wingold flour, a Winona product, in a variety of packages of all sizes.

Folding Camp Stoves.
The La Crosse Folding Camp Stove company has an attractive exhibit in the window of the Kroner Hardware company. A miniature tent is seen under the boughs of a wood, and before it is one of the stoves, with a fire beneath, and surmounted by kettle, pan and coffee-pot.

In an adjoining window of the Kroner store is an instructive display developed by the La Crosse county Agricultural school, in which explanations of farm problems are demonstrated with miniature models and charts. The display is changed daily.

Sorge-Emmison Company
The Sorge-Banissou company's line of dairy products has a window conducive to moisture in the mouth. Ice cream and the famous Sorge cheese are shown with attractive window decorations.

Jehlen Sausage Factory
Sausages of every conceivable shape, kind, size and color are the center of attraction in the window of the Jehlen butcher shop. The "wurst" is the product of the La Crosse Sausage factory. Well garnished with green stuff, it presents a pleasing appearance.

Hans Motor Equipment Company
One of the best exhibits of high grade machinery in the city is the exhibit of the Hans Motor Equipment company in the window of the Hebbard drug store on Fourth and Main. The exhibit contains a number of specimens of gasoline and air gauges, oil pumps and gasoline separators on upwards of twenty different automobile companies.

La Crosse Paper Box Company
The La Crosse Paper Box company has a neat display in the Heil window, which shows that La Crosse merchants and manufacturers patronize their home industries. Boxes for different articles ranging from cards to dress goods are displayed.

La Crosse Brothers' Exhibit.
From the hops and the malt to the dark, amber brew is the instructive exhibit in the Doerflinger window of the La Crosse Brewers, who united in their show.

A comparative string of bottles show the percentages of alcohol in a number of beverages, from beer to absinthe, from the mild to the super-strong. Enlarged fac-similes of different kinds of hops show how they look in their natural state.

C. A. Krebaum
The rubber stamp from the paragon to the finished product, is shown in the Krebaum exhibit. Several fine specimens of photograph development are shown.

Segelke & Kohnhaus
Beautiful pieces of the woodworker's art are the stair newels, inlaid mahogany doors and other interior finishing of the Segelke & Kohnhaus company, one of the oldest in the city. Fine specimens of quarter sawed oak, stained to a superb finish, show the progress made in the wood-working art.

Summit Stove Works
Stoves from base burners and palance ranges to the humble laundry stove are shown in the exhibit of the Summit Foundry company in the Doerflinger store.

August Miller & Son
La Crosse is the home of brooms, the broom, and sometimes the bane of the housewife. From the broomcorn to the finished sweeper the manufacture of brooms is shown in the exhibit of August Miller & Son.

Northern Engraving Company
Cuts and photographs of all kinds mark the exhibit of the Northern Engraving company. Specimens of catalog and art work are also shown.

Tillman Brothers.
The construction of a mattress from the cotton boll to the finished product is shown in the exhibit of Tillman Brothers, who also manufacture box springs.

Wisconsin Pearl Button Company.
Much interest was shown in the sewing of buttons on cards shown in the exhibit of the button works. Much work is eliminated by the invention of a machine that sews buttons on cards at the rate of a hundred a minute, instead of the tedious old way by hand. Blank buttons and the shells from which they were cut are in the window.

La Crosse Cigar Box Company.
Another La Crosse industry, which is well supported by local cigar manufacturers, is the La Crosse Cigar Box company, whose window displays a large line of cigar boxes, for out-of-town manufacturers as well as for those in La Crosse.

Starch Brothers Company.
A cream separator, made in La Crosse, is exhibited by the Starch Brothers company. The machine is an improved type.

Sterling Machine Company
Cement mixers and concrete forms, made in La Crosse by one of the best known manufacturers in the country, make the Sterling machine interesting.

O. Tollefson
Ole Tollefson, noted violin maker, has some instruments which are marked close to $200 on display in his window.

Kratchwil Candy Company and Montague Company
Candies, the perfection of the confectioners' art, are shown in the exhibits of the Kratchwil Candy company in the window of the Continental Clothing company, and that of the Montague company at the Josten Hardware company. A huge pyramid of sweets is the feature of the latter exhibit, while boxes and bars of goodies decorate the window.

La Crosse Garment Company
A new La Crosse company is that of the La Crosse Garment company in the window of the Peter Newburg store. Dresses and other garments are displayed, the product of the new company.

North La Crosse Reed and Rattan Works
Baskets, chairs, wastebaskets and tabourets are shown in the exhibit of the north side industry. The articles are highly finished.

I. Schilling & Sons
Paper of all varieties not "made in La Crosse," but wholesaled by the I. Schilling & Sons company, forms the decoration for the window of that concern.

La Crosse Bottling Works
Root beer, coco cola, ginger ale and dozens of other thirst chasers are shown in the exhibit of the La Crosse Bottling works.

Standard Oil Company
In Barron's east window the Standard Oil company has a unique display. Besides showing all products and by-products manufactured by this corporation, a small oil well, which gives a clear idea of how oil is pumped from the wells, is shown. The pumps "work" and the oil comes from the "wells" in the window. The exhibit is an excellent one.

It is all right to be an enthusiastic fisherman, but a more adequate excuse should be provided for the canned salmon.

AVIATOR CONFIDENT

NEW YORK, July 2.—Worn out with his midsummer work in preparing the airship "America" for her trans-Atlantic flight, Lieutenant Porte, R. N., arrived here today for a brief rest.

He expressed implicit confidence in the success of the forthcoming overseas flight.

While admitting that the big air and water machine is still a "bit balky," Porte professed confidence that the defects would be remedied soon.

TRY FOR COMPROMISE

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Secretary of War Garrison, Secretary of the Interior Lane and Representative Frazier of Oklahoma and Adamson of Georgia began this afternoon a series of informal conferences endeavoring to iron out differences on the administration water power program following a conference last night at the White House.

The Old Time Dandy. From an English newspaper printed in the year 1777 is the following description of a dandy: "A few days ago a macaroni made his appearance in the assembly rooms at Whitehaven dressed in a mixed silk coat, pink satin waistcoat and breeches covered with an elegant silk net, white silk stockings with pink clocks, pink satin shoes and large pearl buttons, a mushroom colored stock covered with blue point lace, hair dressed remarkably high and stuck full of pearl pins."

Vacations always seem foolish—after you have had 'em.

Watches

Who Makes The Best WATCHES? This is a question we are often asked. In our opinion most of our American and number of the Geneva watch factories all make good watches. The difference is more with the dealer than with the companies making them. A good watch sold and delivered in bad order is a poor watch, and a disappointment to the purchaser. We pursue an entirely different course in the sale of watches.

In buying our stock, we purchase none but high quality watches. We case them ourselves, then we test them for 30 days, in different positions, different temperatures, and none are permitted to be put in stock until they show a satisfactory rate and close time. So under these conditions, if you buy from us, you get a watch that is perfect and satisfactory and we make no extra charge for the extra services involved in making these various tests.

We have by far the largest stock to choose from, and on account of the large volume of business, our prices are fully 20 per cent under usual retail values.

BUTLER-FINANCIER FLEECD

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 2.—Thomas Lowry, former butler in fashionable families charged with fraudulently obtaining $65,000 from fellow servants which he pretended to invest in get rich quick securities, today blames a "bucket shop." A brokerage firm "strung" Lowry on, according to his testimony, at the trial, allowing him to make impressive winnings from time to time.

Zoology and Flags.

Zoology figures very largely on the flags of different nations. On the British royal standard is the lion. It was Richard Coeur de Lion, by the way, who altered the device from leopards to lions on the king's standard. The eagle appears on the standards of both Russia and Germany and both the lion and the eagle on that of Spain. Bulgaria has a lion and Mexico a bird quarrelling with a snake. Taken together with the animals that appear on nations' arms, the royal unicorn and Australian emu and kangaroo, a fairly comprehensive collection could be made from the various national emblems.

MRS NICHOLAS IS GREATLY IMPROVED

Fire in City Bakery Brings Rushford Citizens Out of Their Beds; No Damage

RUSHFORD, Minn., July 2.—Latest word from Mrs. Charles Nicholas, who was taken down to the Lutheran hospital last week, is to the effect that she is slowly but steadily on the gain, a fact which causes rejoicing, not alone among her relatives, but among the host of friends she has in and around this city.

Likes Her Work

Miss Edith Blanchfield, who some weeks ago, went over to Rochester to take up the preparatory course in nursing at the Mayo hospital, is very enthusiastic over the work. She finds it congenial and hopes to remain there until she becomes a full-fledged nurse. Her brother, Charles and his schoolmate, Einar Strommes, of this city, made her a short visit recently.

Reports Exaggerated

Reports about the recent storm at our sister town of Lanesboro were, it seems, exaggerated. A gentleman recently down from there tells us that it was not a cloudburst, but a terrific downpour, nevertheless. The water was not over the railroad tracks, however, save for a few inches on the lowest lands. The "fats" as they are called, were inundated and much loss of garden truck, and small grain is reported. No fatalities occurred and although Lanesboroites were well frightened by the swirling clouds that passed over them, no great danger was experienced.

Il. J. Cook Dead

The recent notice of the death, at Knoxville, of Il. J. Cook, will bring to mind to many of the older citizens the fact that this gentleman was, a good many years ago, a resident of this city, having clerked in a jeweler's shop here. Mr. Cook died of heart disease and leaves a widow, three sons and two daughters.

Lease Hotel

Martin Nelson, another Rushford contractor, has leased the old hotel building formerly used as an egg and poultry house by Mr. Sheldahl, and will convert the west part of it, this part being leased by him, into an up-to-date carpenter shop. The large barn, which belonged to the hotel has been bought by Mr. Sheldahl and torn down, the lumber to be taken to a lot west of the Colman Lumber yard and there rebuilt. The lot upon which the new building will be placed is owned by J. G. Robertson and will be leased by Mr. Sheldahl.

Children's Day

The Sunday school of the Rushford Presbyterian church has decided to hold the Children's day exercises on Sunday, July 12. It has been impossible to hold the services any earlier on account of illness in the superintendent's family.

Arthur Bantly Better

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Bantly and family will rejoice to know that Arthur Bantly, who has been very ill, is slowly improving.

The clanging of the fire bell shortly after midnight Tuesday, started Rushfordites from their slumbers and sent them scurrying up the streets to find whose property was endangered. The blaze was found to be in the back room of the city bakery, quite a fire being in progress when Edwin Peterson, going down to the depot to load in a car of stock for shipment on the night freight, saw the blaze and sent in the alarm. Fortunately for the proprietors of the place, but a small amount of damage was done. It is supposed that the fire caught from a spark beneath the oven.

Personals

Miss Ruth Murphy, residing a few miles north of this city, has returned to her home from Lewiston, where for a time she has been aiding her sister, Miss Elizabeth Murphy, in the latter's millinery shop.

About 20 enthusiastic fans went up from here to see the baseball game between the Rushford boys and the Interstates. The Rushford team won the victory, much to the satisfaction of their friends.

John Akre, the contractor, was a business visitor in Preston last Monday.

The average man wants to do all the sinning for his family.

TELL CARRANZA HE MUST MAKE TERMS

Junta Sends Him Word He Must Agree to Peace Along United States Lines

FIRST CHIEF YIELDS TO VILLA

Notifies Him that He Can Have All the Coal He Wants for His Trains

WASHINGTON, July 2.—That he must accept peace on the terms of the United States or take his chances for American intervention was the word sent to General Carranza today.

The rebel junta here today wired Carranza that the Wilson administration is determined to force settlement of the Mexican problem by Mexicans themselves. Carranza was urged to agree to unofficial parleys with the Huertista delegates now at Niagara Falls and also to patch up his differences with Villa immediately.

Investigate Outbreaks
Consul Miller at Tampico wired the state department today that he, Admiral Mayo and Captain Sterling were leaving for the Panuco oil fields to investigate reported outbreaks against American and British citizens in that district.

Carranza Yields
EL PASO, Texas, July 2.—General Carranza has notified General Francisco Villa that he can have all the coal fields of Coahuila for the operation of his railroads according to a dispatch received today from Torreon. Whether this will affect the coming conference between representatives of the two constitutional chieftains is not known, but it is taken here as an indication that Carranza is willing to yield.

Returning from Monterey today Rafael E. Musquiz, constitutionalist consul, denied General Carranza is preparing to flee to the United States if Villa and his adherents make a hostile move.

Huerta Halts Flight

VERA CRUZ, July 2.—Flight of General Huerta from Mexico City at this time was declared unlikely here today by British residents of the capital, a trainload of whom arrived here in response to Sir Lionel Carden's advice that they should leave for a time.

They declared that when news of the break between Villa and Carranza came Huerta and his chief aides realized their government had a new lease of life and abandoned apparent preparations to depart. Despite the interlude caused by Villa's halt, however, the refugees declared conditions in Mexico City were of the worst and that some break must be made before long.

DISTURBER GO MILE BOAT

CHICAGO, July 2.—Commodore Pugh, owner and captain of the speedboat Disturber IV, today said that he expected his boat to make at least sixty miles an hour after she is tuned up. The boat will leave Chicago on July 18, enroute for England. The races for the Harmsworth trophy, for power boats will start at Cowes on August 12.

FIND EVIDENCE OF ANARCHIST PLOT

Italian Arrested in Trieste Admits He was Aware of the Conspiracy

KAISER WON'T GO TO VIENNA

Rumor of Plot to Assassinate Him Causes Decision Not to Attend Heir's Funeral

TRIESTE, Austria, July 2.—Admission that anarchists plotted the death of the assassinated Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria was squeezed out of an Italian named Alessandrini, who recently returned here from Paterson, N. J., and who was arrested here for complicity in the double murder at Sarajevo.

Alessandrini admitted he knew before the assassination of the archduke that the attempt to kill him would be made at Sarajevo.

Will Get "Third Degree"

Alessandrini denies knowing Gavrio Princip, the archduke's assassin. He will be given the "third degree" to refresh his memory.

Into a city draped in black, whose bells tolled requiem from a thousand spires, the bodies of the assassinated Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria and his wife, the countess of Hohenberg, were borne here today from the battleship which brought them from Herzegovina after their murder in Sarajevo.

All along the route through the city priests with lighted candles stood in the forefront of the crowds with upraised hands, praying as the caskets went by. Crepe hung from the houses and children strewed flowers before the caskets.

The temper of the vast crowd was strained to the breaking point and police and secret service men circulated through the throng to prevent any possible outbreak against the Serbs among the spectators.

Kaiser Won't Go

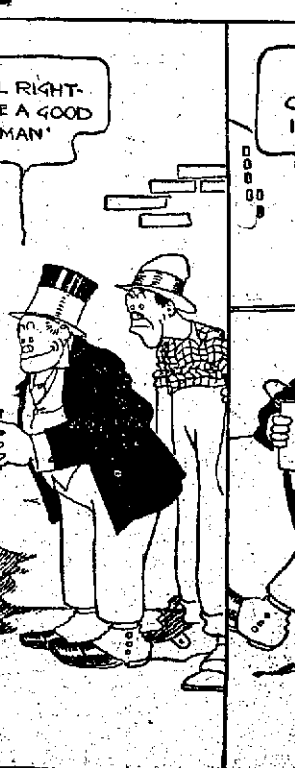

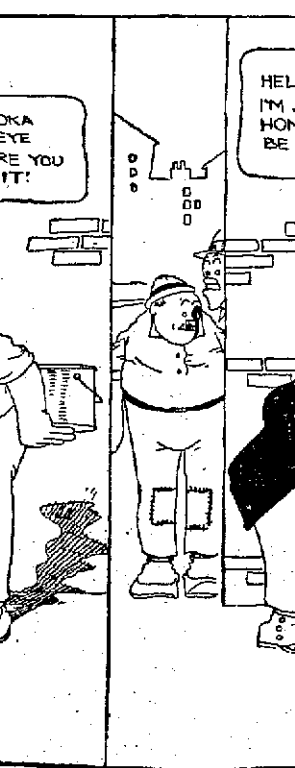

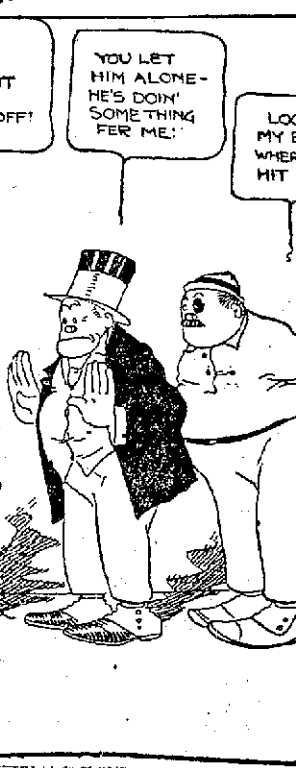

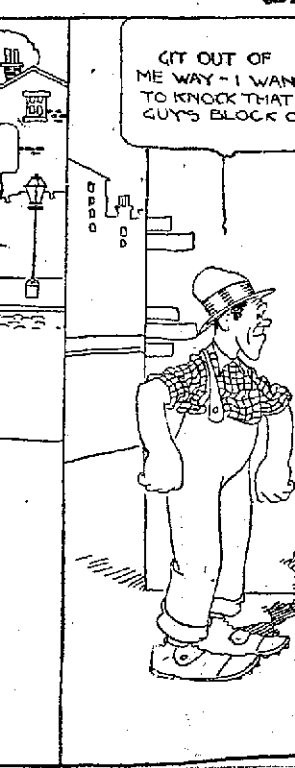

BERLIN, July 2.—Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany will not attend the funeral of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in Vienna, according to official announcement here today. Rumors has it that the discovery of widespread anarchist plots in the Austrian city makes the emperor fear for his life.

Yawning Fish

The mouth of the turbot is twisted to one side, rather as if it had belonged to a round fish which some one had accidentally trod on and squashed half flat. The yawn begins at the lips, which open as if to suck in water. Then the jaws become distended, and it is seen that this is going to be a real, genuine fish's yawn. But the yawn goes on, works through the back of its head, dislodging the plates of the skull, and comes out at the gills, which, open, show the red inside and are indicated for a moment, and then, with a kind of stretching shiver of its back, the fish flattens out again.—London Mail.

WINNINGS CAUSE MURDER OF MAN

Is Killed at New Lisbon After Card Game with Stranger; Only Winnings Are Taken

NEW LISBON, Wis., July 2.—William Sturdevant was found murdered on the street early yesterday. He had been playing cards and the exact amount of his winnings was missing from his pockets. The rest of his money was untouched.

The police are looking for a stranger from whom Sturdevant won the money and who left the saloon with him. His name is unknown.

Sheriff Roy Chamberlain and deputies are searching for the stranger. District Attorney Frank H. Hanson, Mauston, came here to assist. The man appears to have been killed by a single blow across the face with a piece of iron or a club. On the body was found $2 in silver and some currency.

COLLECTS FUND TO DEFEND WOMAN

STAMFORD, Conn., July 2.—Determined that Bessie Wakefield, held in New Haven jail for the murder of her husband, William O. Wakefield, shall never hang without every possible effort to save her, Mrs. W. J. Blicksader today started on an automobile tour of Connecticut to raise "silver quarter" subscriptions for the defense.

No Chance.
"I think it's wrong for a married man to gamble."

"It's worse than wrong; it's idiotic. His wife gives him fits if he loses and confiscates the proceeds if he wins."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

TRAIN ROBBER IS KILLED BY SHERIFF

Daring Bandits Looting a Pullman Car Awaken Sleeping Officer

LAGRANDE, Oregon, July 2.—One robber was killed and Deputy Sheriff McDuffee slightly wounded early today in a revolver battle with highwaymen who held up train No. 3, westbound, on the Oregon-Washington railway and Navigation company between Meacham and Kamela. Three robbers, with their comrade's body, fled on horseback to the mountains.

Three men boarded the train at Kamela. Three miles out they donned masks, drew revolvers and "covered" the Pullman conductor and porter. These were forced into the baggage car where the train conductor and two other trainmen were also taken. The train stopped, and the fireman and engineer were looked in the baggage car.

McDuffee was asleep in the tourist car when the robbers entered. Their noise awakened him and he opened fire on the intruders, killing one. One returned the fire wounding McDuffee slightly. Then all fled. A fourth robber joined the pair and all fled to the mountains.

A Real Fisherman.
"Did you catch any fish this morning?"

"No," (scornfully).
"Well, you are truthful anyway, which can't be said of all fishermen."

"As to that, perhaps you might have called them fish, but I wouldn't. The biggest one I got only weighed twelve pounds."—London Sketch.

CHILD'S TRAINING HARD FOR FIGHT
Foe of Redmond Has Annexed Several Scapels Since Here Last

Pete Childs, the scrappy little boy who met Jack Redmond here in February, is coming to La Crosse for the bacon, and to all appearances, he stands a mighty good chance of coping with him.

Since his bout here last winter, Childs has beaten Jack Duffy, the Seatonville wonder in ten rounds; he has put the knockout to Tom Chandler in seven rounds and to Tom McCormick which is some enviable record.

Charles Lavigne, Childs' manager does not expect his protegee to do any damage in the first four or five rounds, but he advises Schaefer to look for his laurels after the fight is half over. Childs does his best work near the end of a bout.

Eud Williams, the doughy little fighter from the north side, appears to be in excellent shape for his six round opener with Eddie Foy. He is a trifle heavy yet, but a little more work with the gloves and on the road, will put him in topnotch shape for the encounter.

Childs, Schaefer and Joe Minnie from McGregor, are expected in the city Saturday morning.

PROMOTERS FEARFUL FOR RITCHIE'S TITLE
CHICAGO, July 2.—Fearful that Freddie Welsh will beat Willie Ritchie in London next Tuesday night and deprive American boxing promoters of the championship light-weight card, the promoters are today preparing to proclaim Charley White of Chicago light-weight champion in case Ritchie meets defeat.

KILBANE CONFIDENT
CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 2.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, expressed belief today that his scheduled ten round bout here tonight with Knockout Mars will not go more than half the route. Kilbane tipped the beam at 122 today.

"I am going to bore right in from the tap of the bell," said the champion. "Mars will last not over five rounds."

Betting odds favor Kilbane 3 to 1. Mars said today: "Kilbane will go against something tonight that he has never experienced before."

"THE CHARGE OF THE LIGHT BRIGADE"

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD BY MAL SHERRIDAN

Hits for Cincinnati with Larry Cheney firing for the Cubs were as scarce as games in the American League. Rain prevented more than one performance on the Ban Johnson circuit. Cheney held the Reds to a single swat which Berghamer drove out in the seventh.

Of course the Yanks had to play even though the rest of the world was taking a rest and Washington jammed them a little further into the cellar.

The Boston Braves pulled seven errors in two games with the Phillies and held the short end of the score for the double header.

Falling before St. Louis the Pirates slipped to a new low mark, dropping back a point.

The Cards nosed the Reds out of third place.

Umpire Klem is said to have reached this week without banishment of a single player from the field during the season. Yesterday he made up for lost time and fired nine Pirates and Manager Clarke for talking from the bench. Klem also assessed a tariff of $10 each for the time the men spent on the bench.

EXPECT ARREST TODAY
STAMFORD, Conn., July 2.—One arrest in the Ballou murder tangle was confidently expected, police circles today. Chief of Police Brennan's detectives were due back here during the day from a mysterious mission which was believed to deal with the presence of an unidentified key in the apartment of Mrs. Helen M. Angle in front of which Waldo Ballou was found dead.

MAN-GIRL GETS JOB
CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 2.—Ethel Villers, alias "Frank Duffy," the man-girl victim of a blighted married career that ended in Chicago three years ago began life anew here today. She went to the home of an East End family as maid.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at first sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts: take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time. Chas. A. Benschlag, Druggist, 503 Main street.

Relic of Great Russian Ruler.
At Christie's, London, a Jacobean oak chair was sold for 19 guineas. The chair, according to a description, was made from the timber of a wreck and the craftsman is said to have been Peter the Great, while he was a tenant of John Evelyn at Sayes Court, D. Ward.

Peruna Did It for Me.

"I find Peruna an excellent spring and summer medicine and am glad to call the attention of my friends to it. I know by experience that Peruna is a good medicine, and always recommend it whenever I have an opportunity. I can truthfully say that I have no traces of my old complaint, and have neither ache nor pain, and enjoy life. Words cannot express my appreciation for the good Peruna has done me."

PERUNA THE SPRING AND SUMMER MEDICINE.

"I used to get cramps in my stomach. I had sick headaches. My stomach nearly killed me. My family physician only gave me temporary relief. I got out of patience and had given up all hopes of recovery. I then wrote to Dr. Hartman and he advised me to take Peruna. I got a bottle of Peruna and commenced using it. Soon got better and am now entirely cured and feel like a new woman. Peruna is my comfort. I will never be without it." Mrs. Thomas M. Morgan, R. F. D. 2, Wadsworth, Ohio.

HEALTH INSTRUCTION BUREAU
U. S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

FOURTH OF JULY ACCIDENTS
The enormous loss of life which formerly characterized each July 4th is not likely ever again to be repeated. This is in part due to the spread of the Sane Fourth movement, and in part to the more intelligent handling of the fireworks injuries.

The horrible part of many of the deaths following Independence day celebration has been the seeming unimportance of the injury. What appears to be only insignificant wounds may prove to be the ones most likely to be followed by tetanus, or lockjaw as it is also known. The tetanus germ will not grow when exposed to air. For that reason there is very much less danger in large open wounds than in those of a puncturing or stab nature. Little particles of powder, splinters, minute bits of stone, etc., are therefore, most dangerous. The public has gathered a valuable impression concerning the danger of injuries from puncturing wounds by rusty nails. The notion is wrong, in part at least, in attributing the danger to be in the rust. It is correct to the extent that old rusty nails stepped upon are most likely to have been exposed to garden soil and manure. The tetanus germ thrives in the intestinal tract of horses, and is, therefore common in street sweepings and garden earth, fertilized by stable manure.

Returning to Fourth of July injuries, all wounds, no matter how slight they may appear, should be considered suspicious and thoroughly treated. It is safest to employ a competent surgeon. In case none is available, the following treatment is intelligent:

1. Wounds should be thoroughly cleansed, even if they need to be enlarged to reach every crevice.
2. Paint the wound and surrounding tissues with tincture of iodine.
3. Apply wet dressing of boric acid solution or alcohol. Don't close the wound or bind tightly. Allow it to heal from the bottom.
4. Consult a physician upon the advisability of a preventive dose of tetanus antitoxin.

The latter is an almost certain preventive. While slightly better results are being obtained in treatment lockjaw most positively belongs to the group in which prevention is more certain and far cheaper than cure.

SCHOOL ROOF GARDEN

NEW YORK, July 2.—Following closely "Miss Margaret Wilson's" "School social center" idea, the Washington Irving High school tomorrow night will open a roof garden.

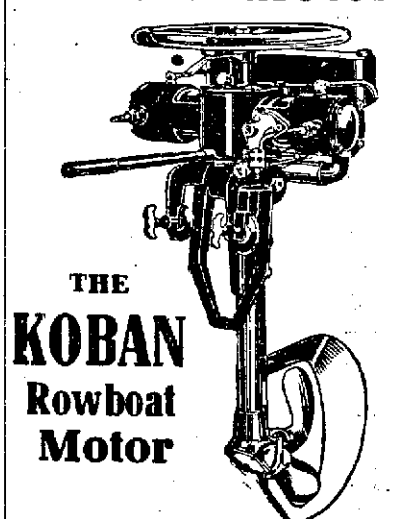

Even a sugar coated compliment may be hard to swallow.

To Ward Off Summer Complexion Ills

To keep the face smooth, white and beautiful all summer, there's nothing quite so good as ordinary mercurized wax. It's free of any harshness, and is absorbed by the skin, leaving no trace of the wax, the latter being applied at bedtime and washed off mornings. Creams, powders and rouges, on the other hand, are apt to appear more conspicuous than usual these days of excessive perspiration. Just get an ounce of mercurized wax at any drug store and use like cold cream. This will help any skin at once, and in a week the complexion will look remarkably youthful and healthy.
Sun, winds and flying dust often cause scalliness and other "complexion" which make wrinkles. You can quickly get rid of every wrinkle, however produced, by dissolving a harmless face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered salicylic acid in 2 pints water.

This is the kind of a rowboat motor you will want this summer

A 2-CYLINDER Rowboat Motor

HERE'S the latest and finest thing in rowboat motors. It's a real engine—powerful and fast—has full 2 horsepower and reverses easily. The Kohan motor overcomes vibration, the biggest objection to rowboat motors. Perfectly balanced and does not shake the boat; fits any rowboat—sure and easy starter—steers with engine shut off. Far superior to any other types in construction and service.

Write at Once for Catalogue.
If you are considering the purchase of a detachable rowboat motor, investigate this remarkable engine. You might as well have an engine that can show its heels to all the rest and won't shake the boat. Write at once for illustrated catalogue.

COMPANY L WILL CAMP AT DOUGLAS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Krass Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary with Sparta Friends

SPARTA, Wis., July 2.—Company L of the National guard, will be in camp at Camp Douglas from July 13 to July 25. An extensive campaign is being carried on by Captain Merrill and others of the company, to enlist a large number of new men. A standard of 100 men in camp this summer is their aim, and if their success continues as good as it has been there will be no difficulty in taking 100 men to Camp Douglas.

Going to Milwaukee
Senator Teasdale has been in Fond du Lac and Oshkosh in the interests of the "vice" commission. From there he goes to Milwaukee. That city will probably be the last one in which the commission will hold its probe.

To Hold Picnic
The Ladies' auxiliary of the John W. Lynn post is arranging for a picnic to be held next Saturday, on the banks of Perch Lake near the water works. All members are asked to bring their baskets, and also contribute to the program, something literary, for entertainment.

Celebrate Golden Wedding
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Krass celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Friday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. J. D. Foltz. At 9 o'clock yesterday morning mass in honor of the event was read by Rev. H. F. Plock at St. Patrick's Catholic church. After the ceremony at the home of their daughter they entertained about 25 guests at an elaborate breakfast.

The couple was married at Rust, Austria, Hungary, January 17, 1864. On account of illness it was impossible to have any commemorative ceremony last January. Mr. and Mrs. Krass are old and respected residents of Sparta, and all congratulate them on reaching their fiftieth anniversary.
Sparta will soon have an organization of Boy Scouts. Under Fred Steele's supervision a number of boys took an examination to qualify for the first degree in Boy Scout-hood, namely "Tenderfoot."

Personal
Miss Mabel Talbot of Tomah is spending a few days at the Harry Buckhausen home.

Mrs. Hansen and daughter Hazel have returned from Eau Claire, where they have been visiting.
Dan Potter left yesterday for a visit with his son in Waukegan, Minn.

Warren Jones of Winona is spending a week at the J. R. Pittinger home.
Miss Lulu Converse, who is a school teacher in Minneapolis, has returned to her home here, where she will remain for the summer.
Miss Blanch Leemor of Chicago is visiting Mrs. John Summerfield for a few days.

Mrs. Arthur Stannard has returned from La Crosse, where she has been visiting relatives.
Miss Elsie Hebbard left Tuesday for Rochester, Minn., where she will undergo an examination for an operation. Her brother accompanied her to Rochester.

Mrs. W. C. Williams of Viroqua spent Monday and Tuesday in Sparta.
Herbert Hebbard left for La Crosse last night, where he will spend a few days.

PLAN SUFFRAGE MOVIES

NEW YORK, July 2. — "Movies" will be the suffragists' next peaceful weapon to spread the doctrine of votes for women. The state association today offered a prize for the best scenario to place the cause before the public.

Style

Every woman knows that style in her dress is a bountiful contributor to her attractiveness. She counts the lines of her hat and her gown and her shoes as a part of herself, and they are. The smart lines of contribute the finishing touch of attractiveness to the well gown woman.

HEIL'S GOOD SHOES FOR WOMEN

We are showing some of the Smartest Styles ever shown in Oxfords, Pumps and Colonials.

PICKS A PIMPLE NOW IN HOSPITAL

William Scholl, local night watchman, is in St. Francis hospital suffering from blood poisoning, the result of picking a pimple. A small eruption over his right eye was picked by Mr. Scholl, says his friends. Today his case became so serious that he was immediately taken to the hospital.

"Do you mean to say that you flirted with your wife all the evening at the masked ball and didn't know her?"

"That's right. But she was so deuced agreeable how was I to know her?"

—Exchange.

—Useless Efforts.

"He's never made any effort to support himself."

"Oh, yes, he has. To my certain knowledge, he's proposed to every girl with money he knows."—Baltimore American.

To carry the simile even farther, it's a wise chicken who knows its own incubator.

FOREIGN MARKETS

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, July 2.—Quiet prevailed at the market opening but the prices were generally up a fraction from yesterday's close.

11 a. m.—The volume of business during the morning session was extremely small and the market was practically at a standstill. Traders were apparently optimistic over the outlook for abundant crops but this optimism did not take the form of buying orders.

Noon—The market was idle during the second hour and price changes were insignificant.

2 p. m.—The Exchange was more restless during the early afternoon than it has been for any time this year.

Northern Pacific was heavy in anticipation of an early partial issue of bonds.

The stock market closed dull.

Chicago Grain Review

CHICAGO, July 2.—Decided strength developed in July wheat during the first hour with the price up to 79 1/2c and northwest markets about 1 1/2c higher, but a reaction followed reports of bountiful yield under good weather conditions and noon prices for July and September were both up but 1/4 over the opening. Cables and weather were counteracting each other. Europe and Liverpool were uneasy over political conditions and reduced shipments from Russia.

Corn was down 1/4 for July and off 1/4 in September at midday. The opening was firm, but decision to relax the grading system caused a break.

Oats for July showed no change while September had a slight advance. The market was inclined to heaviness.

Provisions were devoid of remarkable changes. Offers were light and hogs were strong at the yards.

The market in wheat continued strong to the close. The strength was increased by rust reports from the northwest and continued influential buying drove the shorts to cover. The corn market was very weak early but late speculative buying regained all loss and the market closed

IT LOOKS AS IF THE CAPE HAD COME TO STAY

Black satin lined with white is the material most favored for the summer of cloths and the wide girle of black cape; thin serge is popular too for day-tailfats.

To make this model in size 36, it requires 4 1/2 yards of 42-inch material. A black satin cape is shown in the second illustration, 8456. This design also shows a vest of white moire; the collar and bottom of the cape are finished with circular ruffles. A practical and novel idea in this cape is the belt on the vest which encircles the waist, fastening in back with a button. To copy in size 36, 3 yards of 42-inch satin or other material is needed.

Represents Work of Over Five Years by Alvin Frank; River, Steamers and Parks

A miniature city, the result of five years work by Alvin Frank of Winona is one of the feature paid exhibits of the Home-Coming week.

Winona is the city represented. The factories, railroad tracks, bridges, the river and river front parks are shown. The entire city is "run" by electricity. A steamer, modeled after the steamer J. S. is shown loading and unloading at the dock. A pile driver is at work and lumber is being pulled from the river. A man is seen loading boxes on a wagon in front of a factory building. Men and women are walking across the span bridges and the draw bridge turns when the steamer goes through.

The buildings are made of wood, the steamer and bridges of metal. The entire city is only about 15 feet long and 10 feet wide, but everything a regular, life size city has is depicted.

Some Bootless Remarks.

The whole-souled fellow is not half so likely to go on his uppers as the half-souled ones. The former is usually better heeled and doesn't peg out and leave a fellow in the lurch when he finds it necessary to revamp his fortunes after business affairs have run counter to his desires.

Artistically Speaking.

The Mexican word "hombre" (meaning man) is pronounced "umber." Therefore, a sunburnt man is "burnt umber." This complexion, combined with a vandyke beard and a regular Mexican yellow streak ought to make an effective color schema.

KENOSHA RESIDENTS TAKE RIDES IN AIR

KENOSHA, Wis., July 2.—Kenosha opened three days of festival yesterday when Charles C. Witmer, flying a hydroplane, alighted in the lake of Kenosha. Witmer left Lincoln park in Chicago at 12:15 o'clock and at 1:30 o'clock came to a landing in view of the crowd of Kenosha. He had as his passenger William B. Dickson of Chicago.

After Witmer landed he replenished his fuel and was ready to haul passengers out of Kenosha for trips on the lake. Two passengers were carried for $25, and several availed themselves of the chance.

In the late today movies will be staged and twenty-five Kenosha girls will take part in a comedy film to terminate in a flight over the lake by one of them. Ten thousand people watched the flights.

The Usher Woke Up.

At a certain county court the judge is in his private capacity a kind hearted man. The usher of the court is aged—very aged—but as he had been a faithful servant for many years he was retained in that capacity. One morning he fell asleep in court and began to snore. The noise he made naturally disturbed court proceedings, but the judge displayed great tact in dealing with the matter.

"Usher Jones," he called out loudly, "some one is snoring."

The usher woke up. He jumped to his feet and glared ferociously round. "Silence!" he roared. "There must be no snoring in court!"—Exchange.

The Iron Duke's Birthday.

The Duke of Wellington himself never knew exactly when he was born. He thought it was May 1, but his biographers are not at all agreed on the point—their dates ranging from April 29 to May 6. The discrepancy probably arose from the confusion between the old and new styles of reckoning time. Queen Victoria, at any rate, was content to accept May day as the date of the "iron duke's" birth, seeing that she gave his name, Arthur, to her soldier son, who happened to be born on this date in 1800.—London Chronicle.

Faint heart never won fair lady, but don't let that influence you to be a braggart.

SURGERY CORRECTS BAD MENTAL AND MORAL CONDITIONS IN THREE NEW YORK GIRLS

NEW YORK, July 2.—Surgery, plus osteopathy, can wipe out mental and moral deficiencies, according to Dr. Elizabeth M. Munroe of Brooklyn, noted surgeon and leader in the world's purity congress.

In proof of her statement she today pointed to the cases of three girls who have been under treatment in the last few weeks, and who now are transformed from "bad" to "good."

The foremost case is that of Dorothy Schele. From childhood she showed violent temper, became unmanageable and was a city charge.

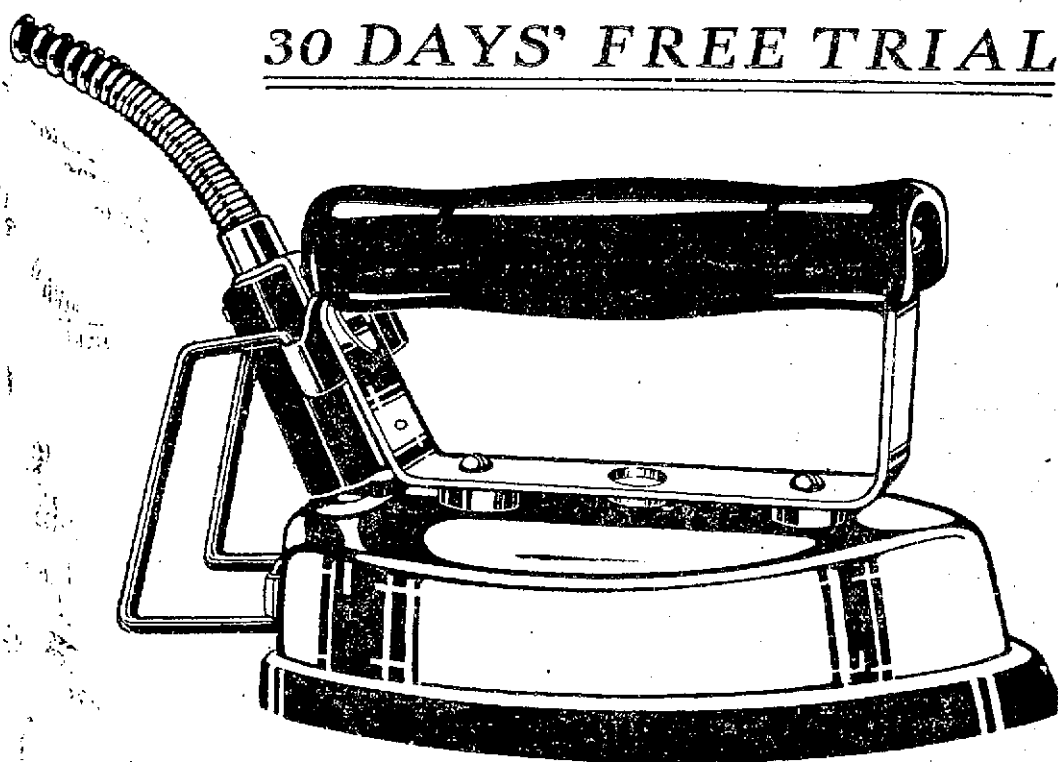

A little more than a week ago, by the use of surgery and osteopathy, Dorothy underwent four operations and her wayward tendencies are gone.

"Nora White," 17, was untruthful and bad. Operations upon her have transformed her to a sweet natured, quiet, upright young woman, Dr. Munroe declared. The third case, that of "Grace Kale," 17, showed marked symptoms of idiosyncrasy, plus immorality, and an operation on the neck and vital organs, has cut the veil from her mind.

A woman's strength lies in her weakness.
